

Year 1 History

Family Album

Spring 2

Studying the past and present in their own and other people's lives.

What has changed in my life time?

Birthday party 1950

How Humans change as they grow older.

Events in our lifetime

Toys have changed over time

Part of The Royal Family of the UK

Prior Knowledge Who are you? (EYFS),		Key Vocabulary: Family album		I need to know: • What is the difference between past and present? • How many years have I lived for? • How have I changed over time? • How can I place a few events in order to show the passing of time. • How some people fit into a chronological framework. • What notable events have we experienced in our lifetime? • What are birthdays and how do we celebrate them nowadays? • How did people celebrate birthdays in the past? • Who are the members of our Royal family? • What did Royal children play with? • What were toys like in the past? • Are toys more fun now than they were in the past?
Links to other topics: Art – drawing and painting self-portraits. Look at portraits of other people including the Royal family. Geography – Locational knowledge about the UK. Science – Seasonal Change		Past / in the ...	The time before the moment of speaking or writing.
		Present	Existing or occurring now.
		Old	Having lived for a long time; no longer young.
		New	Having recently come into existence.
		Young	Having lived or existed for only a short time.
		Baby	A very young child.
		Children	A young human being below the age of puberty.
		Teenager	A person aged between 13 and 19 years.
Guided Reading / English Traditional Tales – Hoptoads and Pearls by Charles Perrault. Family recounts – trips and family events. Traditional Rhymes. – Mary Mary, Quite Contrary.		Adult	A person who is fully grown or developed.
		Royal family	A royal family is the immediate family of kings/queens, emirs/emiras, sultans/sultanas, or raja/rani and sometimes their extended family.
		Birthday	The anniversary of the day on which a person was born.
		Celebration	The action of celebrating an important day or event. A social gathering.
Chronology – • Recognise the distinction between past and present. • Place a few events and objects in order.		At the end of the topic, I will know that: • The past is something that has already happened, the present is what is happening at this minute. I have lived for five or six years. • Over time, I grow, and I get older. I will also move through the classes in St Veronica’s • Events are sequenced based on the day, month and year that they happened i.e. the date I was born, is before my fifth birthday. • I can use a family tree to organise the order in which my own family were born. • Starting school, the death of Queen Elizabeth, the coronation of King Charles, and Covid 19 are all events that have happened in my life time. • Birthdays are a celebration of the day that we are born. • Birthdays are celebrated in a variety of ways, but usually involve the gathering of a family and / or friends. • the members of our Royal family are. King Charles, Queen Camilla, Prince William and Princess Kate among others. • The royal children played with toys that are similar to your own, but they are often special editions or hand made. • Some toys are the same as today, but others like rocking horses, bagatelle and rag dolls are no longer played with, or have been changed. • Whether toys today or in the past is a matter of opinion.		