

Year 1 RE

Being Sorry

Why should we be sorry?

Summer 1 & 2

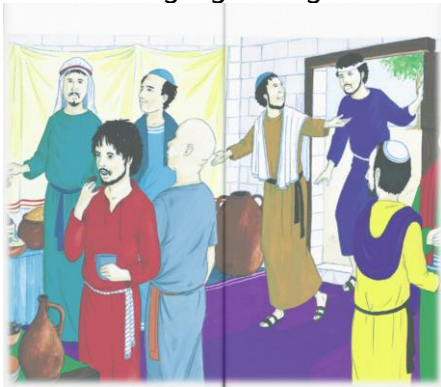

Saying Sorry

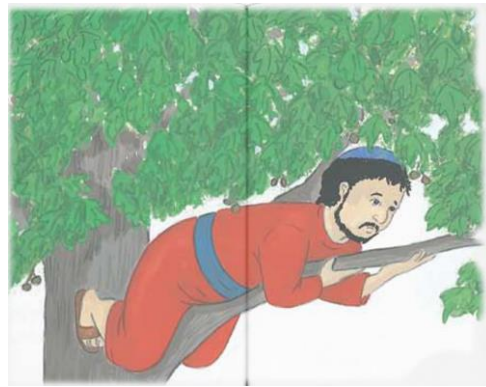

Good Choice

Bad Choice

Jesus Calls on Levi

Zaachaeus seeks forgiveness

Working together to make the world better.

Saying sorry at the end of the day

God loves everyone, everywhere.

Prior Knowledge That if we say or do something wrong, we should say sorry. That Jesus died so our sins could be forgiven.	Key Vocabulary: Being Sorry		I need to know: • What does it mean to make a good choice? • What does it mean to make a bad choice? • What was Levi's job? • What wrong choice did he make? • What did Levi do when Jesus asked him to follow him? • How did Levi change? • What wrong choices did Zacchaeus make? • Why do you think he wanted to see Jesus? • How did Zacchaeus show he was sorry for his wrong choices? • Why did the people complain? • What is God's promise? • What kind things does Isaiah suggest that we do? • What would the world be like if everyone followed Isaiah's advice? • Why is bedtime a good time to think about what has happened in the day? • What do you think we should say to God about the happy times we have had? • What should we say about the unhappy times?
	choice	When you decide to do something disappointed	When you feel let down.
	feeling	Your emotions
	forgive	When someone says it's okay when you say sorry
Links to other topics: PSHE Guided Reading / English Nobot the Robot Hoptoads and Pearls.	happy	When you feel good.
	love	What God and Jesus always do, what you feel towards your family and friends.
	right	Doing something that is correct.
	rules	A set of instructions to help us behave.
	sad	when you feel bad.
	sorry	When you apologise for doing something wrong or making a mistake.
	wrong	The opposite of right. Something you shouldn't have done.

Links to the Bible Luke 5: 27 -31 Luke 19: 1-10 Isaiah 58: 9-11 John 13: 34-35	At the end of the topic, I will know that: • A good choice is when you do something that is the right thing to do • A bad choice is when you do something that you is the wrong thing to do, it can be by mistake or deliberate. • Levi was a tax collector, who agreed to follow Jesus and became one of his friends. • Zaachaeus was a chief tax collector who stole money from the people he collected taxes from • He wanted to see Jesus because he was famous. • Zaachaeus gave Jesus food and returned all the money he had stolen. • Some people thought Jesus shouldn't have gone to Zaachaeus house. • God promises to always help us. • Isaiah says that we should help one another, always be kind, say good things and share with those who have less than us. • The world would be a happier place, where everyone has enough. • Bedtime a good time to reflect, because we can look back on the whole day. We can say thank you for the good things, and sorry for the bad things we have done.
---	--