

Geography Subject Organiser Year 3

A study of a region of the United Kingdom - The Lake District

|                                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------|
| Prior Knowledge/ Links to other curriculum subjects |
| Previous local area study and Maths for coordinates |

| Knowledge                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Geography Skills                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Study key aspects of human and physical geography in the Lake District.Find The Lake District on a map of the UKFind out what lines and symbols on a map mean.Investigate what a National Park is.Compare The Lake District to another National Park.Understand why The Lake District attracts visitors and how the amount of visitors affects the region. | MappingUse a wider range of maps (including digital), atlases and globes to locate countries and features studied.Use maps and diagrams from a range of publications e.g. holiday brochures, leaflets, town plans.Use maps at more than one scale.Recognise that larger scale maps cover less area.Recognise patterns on maps and begin to explain what they showRecognise some standard OS symbols.Link features on maps to photos and aerial viewsPhysicalgeography, including rivers, mountains.Humangeography, including types of settlement and land use, economic activity. |

| Key Vocabulary                                                                       |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Physical A natural feature of geography e.g. a hill or river.                                      |
| Human Geographical features made by man e.g. bridges, towns, villages.                             |
| Scale The ratio of a distance on a map to the corresponding distance on the ground.                |
| Contour Lines on a map that join the same height.                                                  |
| Tourism Holidays and visits to places of interest                                                  |
| Settlement Where people live Land Use What people use the land for e.g. houses, factories, farming |